Arun Kalwankar with one of his works.

Kalwankar's journey into inner self

ARUN Kalwankar says he is in search of excellence. Artist, poet, painter and film maker, Kalwankar has received many awards. He has experimented in ink drawings, pastels, watercolours, oil paints, acrylic, charcoals, ceramics, computer art and films.

He claims also to be an exponent of astrology, Vatsu shastra and spiritual healing.

The exhibition which is on at the Jehangir Art Gallery will end today. The exhibition is entitled: "Ritual rhythms reflections."

He says "This exhibition is a journey into my relationship with God. My relationship with Him has been ever changing. God and I have lived together and he has touched my life in several ways. The exhibition is a journey of my inner self. My paintings are an expression of my quest of my inner self."

He is now producer and designer at Educational Technology IIT, Mumbai.
